Dear Ms. Polto,

Thank you for an awesome, powerful presentation on consumer credit rights. This seminar established a credit educational foundation needed to operate productively in consumers everyday situations. The NAACP is dedicated to accelerating economic growth, by eliminate ethnic economic disparities. This information was a valuable financial tool. By educating consumers and people in this community on economic power, to maintain their credit worth is priceless. Understanding your rights, gives all minorities in this community a strong sense in being able to build, increase and maintain their credit portfolio, thus increasing their purchasing power.

This seminar is must to all, if you are planning to purchase a home, a car or to just build a strong financial background. It is time that minorities to learn and understand their rights.

Thank you again Ms. Polto for your time and your expertise. Again I look forward to working with you in the future.

Respectfully,

John R. Hatcher III
